THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

VISITING SCHOLAR OR VISITING STUDENT

An approved Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student (not enrolled at UA) at The University of Alabama (UA) is entitled to certain privileges and access to certain facilities for the duration of the visitor's stay at UA. These privileges include an official UA ACTion Card, a campus identification card which allows for use of UA libraries without charge; eligibility to purchase employee campus parking permits (if available) at the established rate; and, eligibility to use gymnasium and recreational facilities on a space-available basis upon payment of any required fees.

If an invention or discovery is made by the Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student at UA, the invention or discovery shall be owned as follows:

- Intellectual Property (IP) invented or discovered solely by the Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student and not utilizing or incorporating background IP owned by UA shall be owned by the Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student and is not subject to disclosure to UA.
- IP jointly invented or discovered by the Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student and an employee of UA or invented or discovered solely by Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student using background IP owned by UA shall be jointly owned by UA and the Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student. Disclosure of the IP shall be made in accordance with UA IP policies and procedures.

A Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student is not eligible to participate in the retirement and insurance benefits plans that are only available to regular UA employees, or to make use of student services such as the Student Health Service and group insurance plans for which students pay fees; nor eligible to take UA courses for credit without payment of appropriate tuition and fees.

A Visiting Scholar or Student is expected to conform to the policies and standards of behavior which govern all UA Staff and Faculty employed at The University of Alabama. Visiting Scholar and Student's affiliation with The University of Alabama is at-will, and a Visitor does not necessarily have the same protections or options for appeal of disciplinary actions or separation that is the result of violation of UA policies and standards. For reference, please see the HR Staff Handbook https://hr-estus.fa.ua.edu/HRFormsOnlinePub/HR%20Forms%20%20Online/Staff_Handbook.pdf and Faculty Handbook <http://facultyhandbook.ua.edu/>.

Eligibility for Visiting Scholar or Visiting Student status is limited to those who (1) are not on the UA payroll as an employee in any capacity and (2) are visiting UA under the sponsorship of an academic department or school for the furtherance of scholarly interests. Visiting Scholars may include faculty members on leaves of absence from another institution of higher learning, postdoctoral fellows, or others who hold a terminal degree in their field and are invited to visit by a UA department or school.

Note: If access to the University Libraries and is desired for the visitor, a "New Faculty/Staff Setup" Form must be prepared by the sponsoring department and submitted to Human Resources for processing into the Banner system. http://payroll.ua.edu/forms_guides.html#newsetup
